AWARD NOMINATION CRITERIA:

The AAO Corporate Award is given to organizations, corporations, or agencies of any kind that have been particularly supportive of archives and/or the archival community. Nominees may include:

- Organizations that have provided significant support to the promotion of education, publishing, or other professional activities (including mounting of programmes on behalf of the archival community, provision of expertise, or direct financial contribution).
- Organizations that have provided significant support to the activities of a particular institution.
- Organizations that have demonstrated imagination or creativity in the use of archives.

AWARD NOMINATION CRITERIA:

1. Nominations are open to any resident of Ontario.
2. Current Board members or employees of the Archives Association are not eligible for awards.
3. A nomination will stand for three years of eligibility.
4. The nominee is not required to be a member of the Archives Association.
5. A nomination must be received prior to the application deadline unless agreed upon by a unanimous decision of the Awards Committee.
6. An Archives Association of Ontario member in good standing must sign a nomination form sponsoring an individual. It must be accompanied by a maximum of 1000 word narrative explaining the reasons for the nomination. Additional documentation, including resumé, clippings, publications, etc. is encouraged, but not required.
